Using an outcome set with some key aspects of Teaching & Learning allows for easy identification within reports. It also ensures that observers are focusing on a variety of teaching and learning.

Focus Areas
Learning Walk Evaluation
Area of Strength
Area for Development

Provides a simple way for leaders to view the results of learning walks and implement any additional support or CPD for staff.

Focus areas allow for staff to engage with their records without being able to edit the observers' notes. Staff can use the "View" mode to add reflections, upload resources or create actions.

Evaluation

Learning Walk Evaluation Outcome: In Line

In Line With Expectations

Comments:
Class are engaged with the lesson and from looking in books they have completed work and follow up tasks. April is using questioning well with the group but could be looking at "Bouncing" questions around the class to stretch responses further

Area of Strength Outcome: Differentiation

Differentiation

Comments:
Modelling is used really well and examples of scaffolding is shown within all work sheets. Sentence starters have been used to help lower ability.

Area for Development Outcome: Challenge

Challenge

Comments:
While scaffolding is great for this group and it is demonstrated really clearly, think about challenging the students - stretch their responses and encourage deeper learning skills when possible.

Strength and development outcomes allow for some really nice analysis in reports. Leaders are able to easily identify where support is needed and can use the stronger staff for coaching and peer observations.

Experience of Groups

Disadvantaged (PP)	Outcome: Presentation
Focus on Presentation
Comments: While work is being completed in books - remember to enforce the basic marking policy when looking at standards of work. Ensure dates are underlined and blue or black ink is used.

SEND	Outcome: In Line
In Line with Whole Group
Comments: The group is largely SEND and they are working towards their progress predictions at a steady pace. Differentiation tactics are used well.

Boys	Outcome: Presentation
Focus on Presentation
Comments: Boys need to focus on their presentation - largely male group. Ensure rulers are provided at the beginning of lessons and glue sticks for worksheets.

More focus areas could be added if you would like to include other focus groups within the template. Other examples could be: Gifted and Talented; Low Attainers; EAL etc.

This outcome allows for easy identification of key student groups and where they are in their current learning. It provides a snapshot of these groups for senior leaders to review and provide support or CPD if necessary.

What would this look like in reports?

You can only have 10 outcomes in a set! If you want to include teaching and learning aspects, we would suggest that you create 9 of the most common ones for your school and have the 10th as "Other" with the option to specify in the focus area comments.
